

Snapshots of the early leaders ...

1954 Clair Hill Engineers.

I. to r. Jack Jenson, Don Showalter, Norm Brazelton, Harlan Moyer, Bob Braithwaite

The Founders, abt early 60s.

I. to r. Burke Hayes, Jim Howland, Holly Cornell, Fred Merrvfield

The Boys .. abt 1960s.

l. to r. Top Row: Earl Reynolds, Fred Harem, Bill Watters, Wayne Philips, Sid Lasswell
Bottom Row: Archie Rice, Fred Merryfield, Ralph Roderick, Holly Cornell, Jim Howland

An early board meeting, abt late 60s.

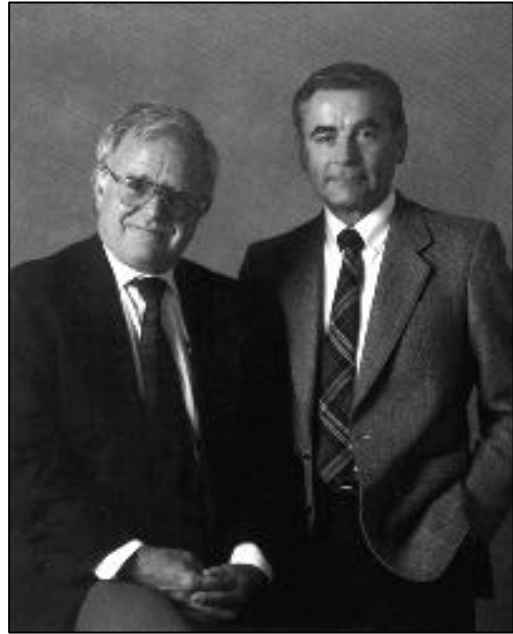

l. to r.: Bob Adams, Ralph Roderick, Holly Cornell, Jim Howland, Burke
Hayes, Fred Harem, Archie Rice.

Governor Ronald Reagan appointing Clair Hill as Chairman of the California Water Commission, abt 1970.

Clair Hill and Jim Howland exchange stock certificates during merger celebration, 1971

Harlan Moyer, President; Jim Poirot, Chairman of the Board, 1983.

Gathering at the 1983 dedication of the entrance plaza to the Corvallis Central Park. The plaza was given to Corvallis to honor the early leaders of CH2M: Holly Cornell, Burke Hayes, Jim Howland, Fred Merryfield, Archie Rice, and Ralph Roderick.

I. to r. Top Row: Meisy and Jim Howland, Anne Merryfield and Ralph Roderick, Cleo and Holly Cornell, Archie and Jane Rice.

Seated: Mary Roderick, Billie and Burke Hayes.